

3.4 Story Time - Nina's Dream

- Listen and repeat.

Nina was a little girl.

She lived in a small village, near Diveagar in Konkan.

Her parents worked in the field. Her village was near the sea.

Her brother went to the grassland to graze their cattle.

The older girls from her lane went to bring firewood from the forest.

Nina sat under a mango tree and watched the birds, butterflies and clouds. She too, wanted to fly like them.

When she saw fishes in the sea, she wanted to swim. When she saw the sea, she wanted to cross it and see what is there on the other side.

After dinner when everyone slept in the front yard, she saw the moon, the stars and wanted to touch them.

When her mother heard her wishes, she smiled and said, "Girls cannot do all these things."

Nina felt, "Will my wishes ever come true?"

One day a smart lady came to their village. She had a bag, some books and a purse on her shoulder.

Nina ran to her and asked,

"Who are you? Are you going to live in our village?"

The lady smiled and said, “Yes. I am Rutuja. I am going to live in your village. We are going to start an ‘Activity Centre’ here for the little girls like you. I also lived and went to school in a small village like this.”

Nina was happy. She held Rutuja’s hand and took her home. She offered her some tea and laddoos.

Rutuja said, “Thank you, Nina. I am a pilot. But I have left the job because I want to teach different things to the little girls from villages.”

“A pilot? Really?” Nina was jumping with joy. “See, mother! Girls can fly!” Rutuja smiled and said, “They can sail across the ocean too.” Mother too was very happy. Nina ran out to tell everyone about the new ‘Activity Centre’.
